THE ART OF COUNSELLING TALENTS

Individual approach is the name of the game in the lively world of entertainment, sports and art. Here at swisspartners we know how fast things can change in these areas. In the hands of a specialized professional management team and us, the careers of talented people will definitely be steered down the right path.

FOR PROS – FROM PROS

With many years of experience in caring for our clients and with our broad networks in those sectors, we understand the complexities and are, thus, in a position to contribute to career advancement and success of talented individuals.

One way we do this is by giving you a wide range of support and advice in tax, legal and financial matters. Our goal is for our clients to be free to focus exclusively on their core activities, hence our motto,

"Behind the Stars".

People who live in the spotlight need competent partners who are always there for them. We can offer you this kind of support – dedicated, individualised, and profoundly knowledge-based.

swisspartners*Talent*™ OFFERS YOU THE FOLLOWING BROAD RANGE OF SERVICES:

- National and international tax advice
- Full-service financial guidance, including accounting services
- Independent investment advice (asset management, real estate, etc.)
- Advice in social security matters
- Support regarding legal issues (trademark and licensing law, succession planning)
- Post-career development
