swisspartners continues its strategic direction swisspartners continues its strategic direction, client focus and services in the international trust and corporate business.

Mrs. Dharshi Wijetunga Frei, private client lawyer, has joined the board of swisspartners Marcuard Heritage AG. Dharshi has extensive experience in wealth planning and wealth transfer solutions built up over many years in the international trust field. Dharshi has spent much of her career in Asia.

swisspartners Marcuard Heritage AG is pleased to announce that Mrs. Caroline Bennett-Akkaya has joined as a Partner.

Caroline has 25 years' experience in the international trust arena and has held senior management positions in the UK and Switzerland for independent and bank-owned trust companies.

swisspartners Marcuard Heritage AG is pleased to announce that Mrs. Geralda Kral has joined as a Partner.

Geralda has worked in the trust business for almost 20 years in the Caribbean and Switzerland, having held several positions as Head of Private Clients, Business Development, particularly in Latin America, and dealing directly with ultra-high net worth families.

David Sykes, CEO of swisspartners Marcuard Heritage AG commented "We are delighted to welcome Mrs. Dharshi Wijetunga Frei to the board and we look forward to working with her. We welcome Mrs. Caroline Bennett-Akkaya and Mrs. Geralda Kral to the company as the addition of these senior professionals will further strengthen our team to grow our business. In addition, their expertise will be particularly relevant to help us meet the needs and expectations of our expanding client base."
