

THE ART OF COUNSELLING TALENTS

Individual approach is the name of the game in the lively world of entertainment, sports and art. Here at swisspartners we know how fast things can change in these areas. In the hands of a specialized professional management team and us, the careers of talented people will definitely be steered down the right path.

FOR PROS – FROM PROS

With many years of experience in caring for our clients and with our broad networks in those sectors, we understand the complexities and are, thus, in a position to contribute to career advancement and success of talented individuals.

One way we do this is by giving you a wide range of support and advice in tax, legal and financial matters. Our goal is for our clients to be free to focus exclusively on their core activities, hence our motto,

"Behind the Stars".

People who live in the spotlight need competent partners who are always there for them. We can offer you this kind of support – dedicated, individualised, and profoundly knowledge-based.

swisspartners Talent[™] OFFERS YOU THE FOLLOWING BROAD RANGE OF SERVICES:

- National and international tax advice
- Full-service financial guidance, including accounting services
- Independent investment advice (asset management, real estate, etc.)
- Advice in social security matters
- Support regarding legal issues (trademark and licensing law, succession planning)
- Post-career development

swisspartners *Talent*TM

Some things are happily done by oneself. Others, though, are better left to an experienced, competent partner. As professional advisors for successful people in the entertainment business, sports and art sector, we assist your management team by taking on the challenging tasks listed below.

Here is the breakdown of our services:

TAXES

Living and working in an international environment calls for broad-based solutions. We are able to advise in all tax matters, as well as offer help with your business dealings. Additionally, we devise sensible plans that can lower your tax load.

ACCOUNTING

Thanks to many years of experience in business accounting we are able to provide capable, full-service financial accounting however complex the situation.

FINANCE

Personalised strategies are the foundation for our successful investment counselling and financial planning services. By working with you we can achieve this goal.

REAL ESTATE

We lighten the burden of your moving to Switzerland from abroad and vice versa. We take care of your new home and oversee all aspects change of residence / domicile in terms of you..

POST-CAREER DEVELOPMENT

Working closely with you and your management team, we seek out solutions for a successful post-career path to find new prospects for your future.

LAW

Legal advice from swisspartners TalentTM focuses on the areas of most concern to you. These include trademark and copyright law, entertainment/media law, sponsorship, and the ins and outs of art dealing.

>> Personally tailored Swiss company formation

We would be happy to explain how the "Licence Box" can be put to use for better career financial planning and tax reduction.

Ralph P. Schuler, Partner
Phone +41 58 200 0 460
ralph.schuler@swisspartners.com